HONGKONG, TURBDAY, MAY 21, 1889. THE correspondence which we published on Saturday with reference to a direct cable to Singapore, or rather a cable from Hongkong to Singapore not touching foreign territory, does not much improve the prospect of our soon becoming independent of the Saigon connection. The Chamber of Commerce, while recognising the value of direct telegraphic communication with British North Borneo, a rapidly developing territory in which a large amount of Hongkong capital has been invested, do not think that the Colony of Hongkong is call-Messas Russell and Co. inform us that the from the Mainiche Shimbun - At the end ed upon to pay a large subsidy a new cable. The present line via Sugon is more than ample for the existing traffic, and a new found on the fourth page. cable, unless it were constructed by a rival company, would not haston the time when a reduction of rates might be expected. The extension of the Burmah line to meet the Chinese line, as a possibility of affording competition, lies more in the interest of Hongkong merchants But apart from the question of direct communication with Singapore, there is the question whether Junction lest night by their shouts were the laying of a cable between Hongkong and Borneo would not so develop the trade between these places as to justify Hong. kong in giving a small subsidy towards the THE N. And even supposing it were cut, Denny, while admitting that the Korean there would remain the Burmah and China route, which we hope will be completed in a few months. Of course it is possible that we might have difficulties with China at the same time as with France and that this line might also be out, but that is a rather far off contingency. Then we must not forget that a Pacific cable is contemplated; and that we may at a not far distant date be able to communicate with Europe have to be taken into account before it can be decided whether a Hongkong-Borneo-Singapore cable is a political necessity. Tue reference made by Judge Denny to the fidancial position of Korea, in the interview reported by us on the 17th inst., may be open to some misconstruction. Mr Government is in somewhat straightened circumstances, maintains that the agricultutal and mineral wealth of the country is great. The rumours about the famine in the South of Korea arose from the Govern ment withdrawing the duty on rice owing to the poorness of that crop. There was no actual dearth; and in the North, where ceraals and other crops are grown, there was a good harvest. He says that about via Canada. SUPREME COURT. IN CRIMINAL SESSIONS (Before Mr Justice Fieldi g Clarke, Acting Chief Justice.

The Oriminal Sessions were resumed today. The hearing of the case against Lai See, who was charged with shooting at n man named Xi On with intent to murder him and in the second count with intent to main, was continued. Evidence for the defence was led with the view of showing that the prisoner was not present when the shooting took place. Mr Robinson said he was quite willing to leave the case in the hands of the jury without addressing them if the Attorney General agreed to do the same. The jury, however, desired to hear counsel. His Lordship, in addressing the jury; for the first six months following the date said the principal question for the jury was that of identity. On that point the evidence was not very satisfactory. The complainant had not distinguished himself as a man who told the truth, he having wandered from it several times in a serious manner. The jury found the prisoner not guilty by a majority of 6 to 1. The Sessions then adjourned till 10 a.m. to-morrow.

THE TRADE OF SOUTH CHINA The inclusion of Kowloon and Lupa this year has so increased the number of the southern ports, that we are obliged compress our remarks on their annual reports, in order to bring them within the limits of an article. All the Commissioner write in good spirits on the whole; we again pass by what they say of opium, though at many of the southern ports it is the most important article of trade. In Amoy we read the gross value of the trade shews a slight increase over that of 1887. in Swatow although 1888 was not without its troubles the estimated value of the trade was second only to that of 1887; in Canton the total value was nearly Tls. 800,000 above that of the year preceding in Kowloon it was more than Itis millions over the previous (estimated) year; in Lappa the trade advanced considerably since 1887; in Klungchow the trade in general was only moderate,-not so good as in 1887; but as good as in previous years : while Mr Sid-Much has been said as to the impolicy ford is able to write that 'the report on the
